Changes around the country affect attitudes and perceptions here at home, so it's important to educate members of our communities about the pitfalls and dangers of drug use and abuse. We are continually updating this program helps us reflect what is happening in our schools and communities today.

By taking part in this interactive program, participants will be able to identify:

- Drugs popular with teens and young adults today
- Signs and symptoms of someone using
- Effects of use on health, relationships, and life
- Local resources
- Where to get HELP
